

South Scituate Dec. 3.

My Dear Friend

1841-

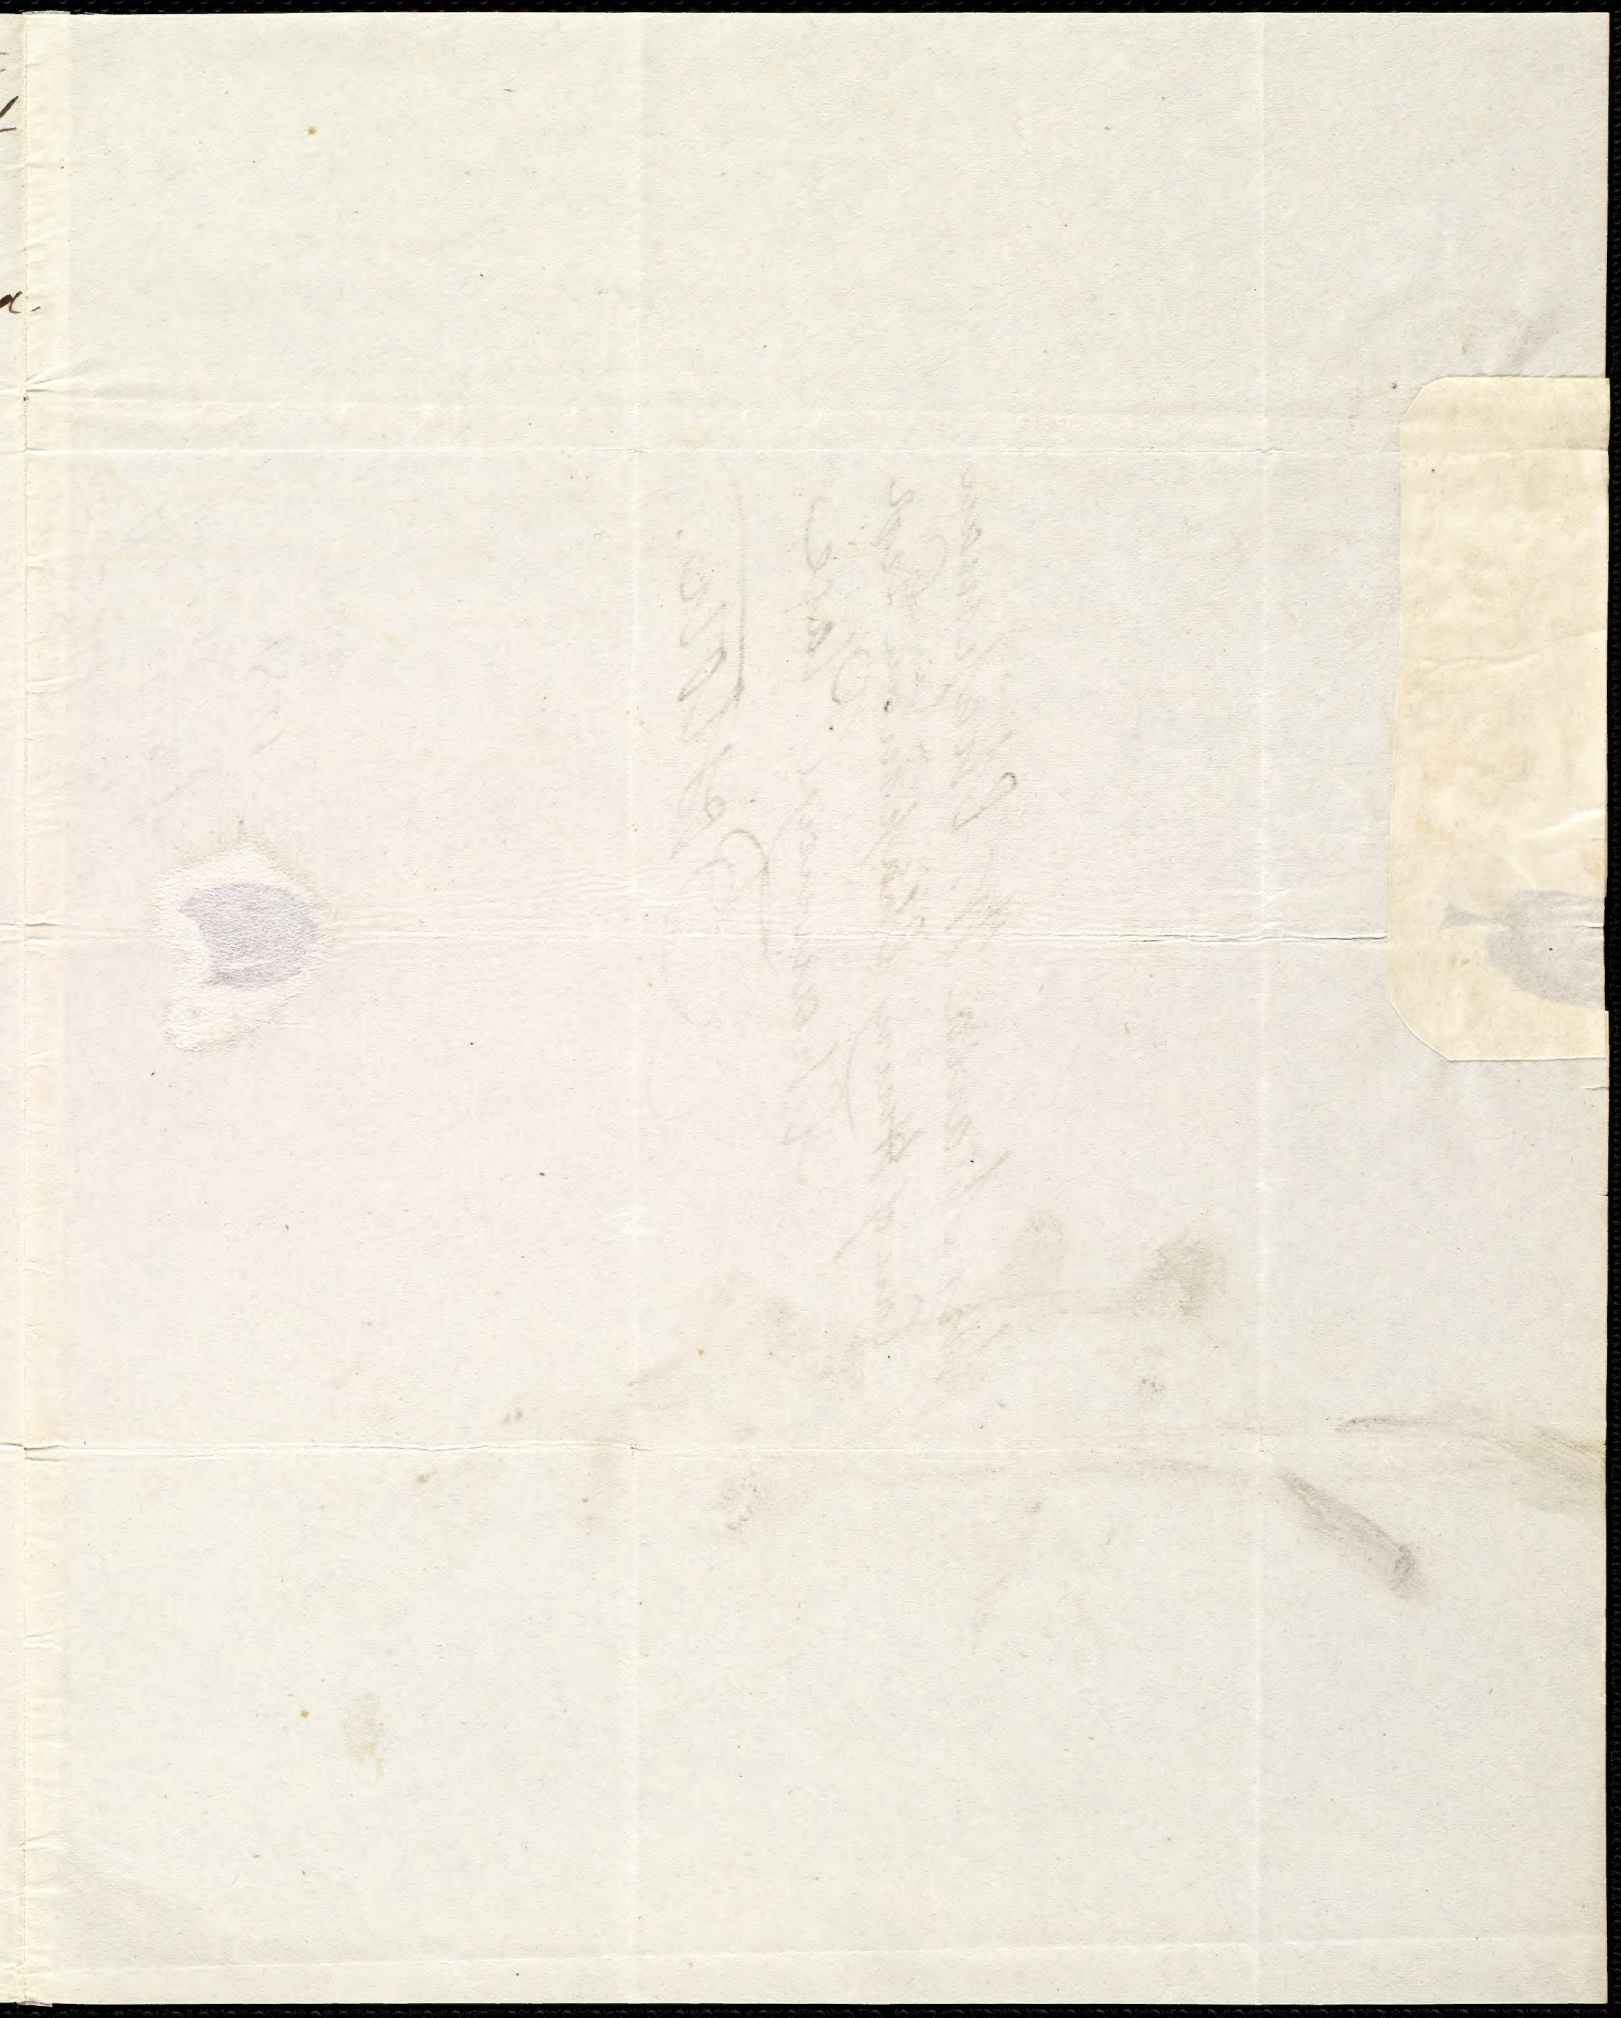

I send you herewith three articles. You may take your choice of them or reject them all, if neither shall seem to you adapted to the Liberty Bell. You will see that I have enclosed a considerable portion of the longest in pencil marks. You may omit that portion - if you prefer ^{that} article for the Bell, and think the whole too much. I have no particular preference for either of them myself, and am sincere in saying that I wish you not to make use of either, unless you really think it will contribute ~~materially~~ to the interest and usefulness of your publication. You may send either or all of them to the Standard or the Liberator. If they serve no other purpose, they will certify that I am still engaged in the Anti Slavery cause, and among the old organization abolitionists - where I hope to be found so long as I live. —

Mr Stearns of Hingham exchanged with me last Sunday and tarried here until Tuesday. He is deeply, devoutly engaged in the anti Slavery cause. He has preached most faithfully, fearlessly, thrillingly on the subject, again and again. He will yet stand high among the confessors of impartial Liberty.

I begged him to send you an article for the Liberty Bell. He is not fond of writing - though he writes admirably well.
He almost promised me he would. And if you will drop him a line, I think you may draw from him an article that will greatly enrich your publication.

Yours affectionately
Samuel J. May—
